FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

18. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully stated herein with the same force and effect as if the same were set forth at length herein.

Bridgecrest Dispute and Violation

19. On information and belief, on a date better known to Defendant Transunion, Transunion prepared and issued credit reports concerning the Plaintiff that included inaccurate information relating to his Bridgecrest auto loan.

20. The inaccurate information furnished by Defendant Bridgecrest and published by Transunion is inaccurate since the balance is incorrect as well as the payment status. This loan had been previously paid.

21. Transunion has been reporting this inaccurate information through the issuance of false and inaccurate credit information and consumer reports that they have disseminated to various persons and credit grantors, both known and unknown.

22.Plaintiff notified Transunion that he disputed the accuracy of the information they were reporting on or around January 7, 2019, via a dispute letter sent to Transunion,

23.It is believed and therefore averred that Transunion notified Defendant Bridgecrest of the Plaintiff's dispute.

24.Upon receipt of the dispute of the account from the Plaintiff by Transunion, Bridgecrest failed to conduct a reasonable investigation and continued to report false and inaccurate adverse information on the consumer report of the Plaintiff with respect to the disputed account.

25.Had Bridgecrest conducted a reasonable investigation it would have been revealed that the debt was being reported inaccurately.

26.Additionally, Defendant Bridgecrest failed to continuously mark the account as disputed despite receiving notice of the Plaintiff's dispute.

27.Despite the dispute by the Plaintiff that the information on her consumer report was inaccurate with respect to the dispute account, Transunion did not evaluate or consider any of the information, claims, or evidence of the Plaintiff and did not make an attempt to substantially reasonably verify that the derogatory information concerning the disputed account was inaccurate.

28. Transunion violated 15 U.S. Code § 1681i (a)(1)(A) by failing to conduct a reasonable investigation and failed to delete or correct the disputed trade line within 30 days of receiving Plaintiff's dispute letter.
29. Notwithstanding Plaintiff's efforts, Transunion sent Plaintiff correspondence indicating their intent to continue publishing the inaccurate information and Defendants continued to publish and disseminate such inaccurate information to other third parties, persons, entities and credit grantors.
30. As a result of Defendants' failure to comply with the FCRA, the Plaintiff suffered damage by loss of credit, loss of ability to purchase and benefit from credit, a chilling effect on applications for future credit, and the mental and emotional pain, anguish, humiliation and embarrassment of credit denial.

Bankplus Dispute and Violation

31. On information and belief, on a date better known to Defendants Transunion, Experian, and Equifax, hereinafter ("Credit Bureaus"), Credit Bureaus prepared and issued credit reports concerning the Plaintiff that included inaccurate information relating to his Bankplus loan.
32. The inaccurate information furnished by Defendant Bankplus and published by Credit Bureaus is inaccurate since the balance is incorrect, as well as all the positive data is being suppressed.

33. The Credit Bureaus have been reporting this inaccurate information through the issuance of false and inaccurate credit information and consumer reports that they have disseminated to various persons and credit grantors, both known and unknown.

34. Plaintiff notified the Credit Bureaus that he disputed the accuracy of the information they were reporting on or around January 7, 2019, via dispute letters sent to each bureau.

35. It is believed and therefore averred that the Credit Bureaus notified Defendant Bankplus of the Plaintiff's disputes.

36. Upon receipt of the dispute of the account from the Plaintiff by the Bureaus, Bankplus failed to conduct a reasonable investigation and continued to report false and inaccurate adverse information on the consumer report of the Plaintiff with respect to the disputed account.

37. Had Bankplus conducted a reasonable investigation it would have been revealed that the debt was being reported inaccurately including the suppression of positive data.

38. Additionally, Defendant Bankplus failed to continuously mark the account as disputed despite receiving notice of the Plaintiff's dispute.

39. Despite the dispute by the Plaintiff that the information on his consumer report was inaccurate with respect to the dispute account, the Bureaus did not evaluate or consider any of the information, claims, or evidence of the Plaintiff and did not make an attempt to substantially reasonably verify that the derogatory information concerning the disputed account was inaccurate.

40. The Credit Bureaus violated 15 U.S. Code § 1681i (a)(1)(A) by failing to conduct a reasonable investigation and failed to delete or correct the disputed trade line within 30 days of receiving Plaintiff's dispute letter.

41. Notwithstanding Plaintiff's efforts, the Credit Bureaus sent Plaintiff correspondence indicating their intent to continue publishing the inaccurate information and Defendants continued to publish and disseminate such inaccurate information to other third parties, persons, entities and credit grantors.

42. As a result of Defendants' failure to comply with the FCRA, the Plaintiff suffered damage by loss of credit, loss of ability to purchase and benefit from credit, a chilling effect on applications for future credit, and the mental and emotional pain, anguish, humiliation and embarrassment of credit denial.

Entergy Dispute and Violation

43. On information and belief, on a date better known to Defendants Transunion, Experian, and Equifax, hereinafter ("Credit Bureaus"), Credit

Bureaus prepared and issued credit reports concerning the Plaintiff that included inaccurate information relating to his Entergy account.

44. The inaccurate information furnished by Defendant Entergy and published by Credit Bureaus is inaccurate since the balance is incorrect. The Plaintiff does not recall owing any money to this company.

45. The Credit Bureaus have been reporting this inaccurate information through the issuance of false and inaccurate credit information and consumer reports that they have disseminated to various persons and credit grantors, both known and unknown.

46. Plaintiff notified the Credit Bureaus that he disputed the accuracy of the information they were reporting on or around January 7, 2019, via dispute letters sent to each bureau.

47. It is believed and therefore averred that the Credit Bureaus notified Defendant Entergy of the Plaintiff's disputes.

48. Upon receipt of the dispute of the account from the Plaintiff by the Bureaus, Entergy failed to conduct a reasonable investigation and continued to report false and inaccurate adverse information on the consumer report of the Plaintiff with respect to the disputed account.

49. Had Entergy conducted a reasonable investigation it would have been revealed that the debt was being reported inaccurately.

50. Additionally, Defendant Entergy failed to continuously mark the account as disputed despite receiving notice of the Plaintiff's dispute.

51. Despite the dispute by the Plaintiff that the information on his consumer report was inaccurate with respect to the dispute account, the Bureaus did not evaluate or consider any of the information, claims, or evidence of the Plaintiff and did not make an attempt to substantially reasonably verify that the derogatory information concerning the disputed account was inaccurate.

52. The Credit Bureaus violated 15 U.S. Code § 1681i (a)(1)(A) by failing to conduct a reasonable investigation and failed to delete or correct the disputed trade lines within 30 days of receiving Plaintiff's dispute letter.

53. Notwithstanding Plaintiff's efforts, the Credit Bureaus sent Plaintiff correspondence indicating their intent to continue publishing the inaccurate information and Defendants continued to publish and disseminate such inaccurate information to other third parties, persons, entities and credit grantors.

54. As a result of Defendants' failure to comply with the FCRA, the Plaintiff suffered damage by loss of credit, loss of ability to purchase and benefit from credit, a chilling effect on applications for future credit, and the mental and emotional pain, anguish, humiliation and embarrassment of credit denial.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Willful Violation of the FCRA as to Experian)

55. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully stated herein with the same force and effect as if the same were set forth at length herein.

56. This is an action for willful violation of the Fair Credit Reporting Act U.S.C. § 1681 et seq.

57. Experian violated 15 U.S.C. § 1681e by failing to establish or to follow reasonable procedures to assure maximum possible accuracy in the preparation of the credit report and credit files that Experian maintained concerning the Plaintiff.

58. Experian has willfully and recklessly failed to comply with the Act. The failure of Experian to comply with the Act include but are not necessarily limited to the following:

- a) The failure to follow reasonable procedures to assure the maximum possible accuracy of the information reported;
- b) The failure to correct erroneous personal information regarding the Plaintiff after a reasonable request by the Plaintiff;
- c) The failure to remove and/or correct the inaccuracy and derogatory credit information after a reasonable request by the Plaintiff;

- d) The failure to promptly and adequately investigate information which Defendant Experian had notice was inaccurate;
- e) The continual placement of inaccurate information into the credit report of the Plaintiff after being advised by the Plaintiff that the information was inaccurate;
- f) The failure to note in the credit report that the Plaintiff disputed the accuracy of the information;
- g) The failure to promptly delete information that was found to be inaccurate, or could not be verified, or that the source of information had advised Experian to delete;
- h) The failure to take adequate steps to verify information Experian had reason to believe was inaccurate before including it in the credit report of the consumer.

59. As a result of the conduct, action and inaction of Experian, the Plaintiff suffered damage by loss of credit, loss of ability to purchase and benefit from credit, and the mental and emotional pain, anguish, humiliation and embarrassment of credit denial.

60. The conduct, action and inaction of Experian was willful rendering Experian liable for actual, statutory and punitive damages in an amount to be determined by a Judge and/or Jury pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n.

61.The Plaintiff is entitled to recover reasonable costs and attorney's fees from Experian in an amount to be determined by the Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Linnaeus Bullie, an individual, demands judgment in his favor against Defendant, Experian, for damages together with attorney's fees and court costs pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Negligent Violation of the FCRA as to Experian)

62.Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully stated herein with the same force and effect as if the same were set forth at length herein.

63.This is an action for negligent violation of the Fair Credit Reporting Act U.S.C. § 1681 et seq.

64.Experian violated 15 U.S.C. § 1681i(a) by failing to delete inaccurate information from the credit file of the Plaintiff after receiving actual notice of such inaccuracies and conducting reinvestigation and by failing to maintain reasonable procedures with which to verify the disputed information in the credit file of the Plaintiff.

65.Experian has negligently failed to comply with the Act. The failure of Experian to comply with the Act include but are not necessarily limited to the following:

- a) The failure to follow reasonable procedures to assure the maximum possible accuracy of the information reported;
- b) The failure to correct erroneous personal information regarding the Plaintiff after a reasonable request by the Plaintiff;
- c) The failure to remove and/or correct the inaccuracy and derogatory credit information after a reasonable request by the Plaintiff;
- d) The failure to promptly and adequately investigate information which Defendant Experian had notice was inaccurate;
- e) The continual placement of inaccurate information into the credit report of the Plaintiff after being advised by the Plaintiff that the information was inaccurate;
- f) The failure to note in the credit report that the Plaintiff disputed the accuracy of the information;
- g) The failure to promptly delete information that was found to be inaccurate, or could not be verified, or that the source of information had advised Experian to delete;
- h) The failure to take adequate steps to verify information Experian had reason to believe was inaccurate before including it in the credit report of the consumer.

66.As a result of the conduct, action and inaction of Experian, the Plaintiff suffered damage by loss of credit, loss of ability to purchase and benefit from credit, and the mental and emotional pain, anguish, humiliation and embarrassment of credit denial.

67.The conduct, action and inaction of Experian was negligent, entitling the Plaintiff to damages under 15 U.S.C. § 1681o.

68.The Plaintiff is entitled to recover reasonable costs and attorney's fees from Experian in an amount to be determined by the Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n and 1681o.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Linnaeus Bullie, an individual, demands judgment in his favor against Defendant, Experian, for damages together with attorney's fees and court costs pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681o.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Linnaeus Bullie, an individual, demands judgment in his favor against Defendant, Transunion, for damages together with attorney's fees and court costs pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681o.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Willful Violation of the FCRA as to Bridgecrest)

97. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully stated herein with the same force and effect as if the same were set forth at length herein.

98. This is an action for willful violation of the Fair Credit Reporting Act U.S.C. § 1681 et seq.

99. Pursuant to the Act, all persons who furnished information to reporting agencies must participate in re-investigations conducted by the agencies when consumers dispute the accuracy and completeness of information contained in a consumer credit report.

100. Pursuant to the Act, a furnisher of disputed information is notified by the reporting agency when the agency receives a notice of dispute from a consumer such as the Plaintiff. The furnisher must then conduct a timely investigation of the disputed information and review all relevant information provided by the agency.

101. The results of the investigation must be reported to the agency and, if the investigation reveals that the original information is incomplete or inaccurate, the information from a furnisher such as the one listed above must report the results to other agencies which were supplied such information.

102. The Defendant Bridgecrest violated 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(a) by the publishing of the Account Liability Representation; by failing to fully and properly investigate the dispute of the Plaintiff with respect to the Account Liability Representation; by failing to review all relevant information regarding same by failing to correctly report results of an accurate investigation to the credit reporting agencies.
103. Specifically, the Defendant Bridgecrest continued to report this account on the Plaintiff's credit report after being notified of his dispute regarding the inaccurate and materially misleading account information regarding the account balance and status.
104. Additionally, the Defendant Bridgecrest failed to continuously mark the account as disputed after receiving notice of the Plaintiff's dispute.
105. As a result of the conduct, action and inaction of the Defendant Bridgecrest, the Plaintiff suffered damage for the loss of credit, loss of the ability to purchase and benefit from credit, and the mental and emotional pain, anguish, humiliation and embarrassment of credit denials.
106. The conduct, action and inaction of Defendant Bridgecrest was willful, rendering Defendant Bridgecrest liable for actual, statutory and punitive damages in an amount to be determined by a jury pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n.

107. The Plaintiff is entitled to recover reasonable costs and attorney's fees from Defendant Bridgecrest in an amount to be determined by the Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Linnaeus Bullie, an individual, demands judgment in her favor against Defendant, Bridgecrest, for damages together with attorney's fees and court costs pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Negligent Violation of the FCRA as to Bridgecrest)

108. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully stated herein with the same force and effect as if the same were set forth at length herein.

109. This is an action for negligent violation of the Fair Credit Reporting Act U.S.C. § 1681 et seq.

110. Pursuant to the Act, all persons who furnished information to reporting agencies must participate in re-investigations conducted by the agencies when consumers dispute the accuracy and completeness of information contained in a consumer credit report.

111. Pursuant to the Act, a furnisher of disputed information is notified by the reporting agency when the agency receives a notice of dispute from a consumer such as the Plaintiff. The furnisher must then conduct a timely investigation of the disputed information and review all relevant information provided by the agency.

112. The results of the investigation must be reported to the agency and, if the investigation reveals that the original information is incomplete or inaccurate, the information from a furnisher such as the above-named Defendant must report the results to other agencies which were supplied such information.

113. Defendant Bridgecrest is liable to the Plaintiff for failing to comply with the requirements imposed on furnishers of information pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2b.

114. After receiving the Dispute Notice from Transunion, Defendant Bridgecrest negligently failed to conduct its reinvestigation in good faith.

115. Additionally, the Defendant Bridgecrest failed to continuously mark the account as disputed after receiving notice of the Plaintiff's dispute.

116. A reasonable investigation would require a furnisher such as Defendant Bridgecrest to consider and evaluate a specific dispute by the consumer, along with all other facts, evidence and materials provided by the agency to the furnisher.

117. The conduct, action and inaction of Defendant Bridgecrest was negligent, entitling the Plaintiff to recover actual damages under 15 U.S.C. § 1681o.

118. As a result of the conduct, action and inaction of the Defendant Bridgecrest, the Plaintiff suffered damage for the loss of credit, loss of the ability to purchase and benefit from credit, and the mental and emotional pain, anguish, humiliation and embarrassment of credit denials.

119. The Plaintiff is entitled to recover reasonable costs and attorney's fees from the Defendant Bridgecrest in an amount to be determined by the Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n and 1681o.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Linnaeus Bullie, an individual, demands judgment in her favor against Defendant, Bridgecrest, for damages together with attorney's fees and court costs pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681o.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Willful Violation of the FCRA as to Bankplus)

120. Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the above paragraphs of this Complaint as though fully stated herein with the same force and effect as if the same were set forth at length herein.

121. This is an action for willful violation of the Fair Credit Reporting Act U.S.C. § 1681 et seq.

122. Pursuant to the Act, all persons who furnished information to reporting agencies must participate in re-investigations conducted by the agencies when consumers dispute the accuracy and completeness of information contained in a consumer credit report.
123. Pursuant to the Act, a furnisher of disputed information is notified by the reporting agency when the agency receives a notice of dispute from a consumer such as the Plaintiff. The furnisher must then conduct a timely investigation of the disputed information and review all relevant information provided by the agency.
124. The results of the investigation must be reported to the agency and, if the investigation reveals that the original information is incomplete or inaccurate, the information from a furnisher such as the one listed above must report the results to other agencies which were supplied such information.
125. The Defendant Bankplus violated 15 U.S.C. § 1681s-2(a) by the publishing of the Account Liability Representation; by failing to fully and properly investigate the dispute of the Plaintiff with respect to the Account Liability Representation; by failing to review all relevant information regarding same by failing to correctly report results of an accurate investigation to the credit reporting agencies.

126. Specifically, the Defendant Bankplus continued to report this account on the Plaintiff's credit report after being notified of his dispute regarding the inaccurate and materially misleading account information.

127. Additionally, the Defendant Bankplus failed to continuously mark the account as disputed after receiving notice of the Plaintiff's dispute.

128. As a result of the conduct, action and inaction of the Defendant Bankplus, the Plaintiff suffered damage for the loss of credit, loss of the ability to purchase and benefit from credit, and the mental and emotional pain, anguish, humiliation and embarrassment of credit denials.

129. The conduct, action and inaction of Defendant Bankplus was willful, rendering Defendant Bankplus liable for actual, statutory and punitive damages in an amount to be determined by a jury pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n.

130. The Plaintiff is entitled to recover reasonable costs and attorney's fees from Defendant Bankplus in an amount to be determined by the Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, Linnaeus Bullie, an individual, demands judgment in his favor against Defendant, Bankplus, for damages together with attorney's fees and court costs pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681n.
